Various cultural activities were held at Yashwantrao Bhonsale Polytechnic on Tuesday, 27th February to celebrate the ‘Marathi Bhasha Diwas’ on the occasion of the birth anniversary of noted Marathi litterateur V.V. Shirwadkar alias ‘Kusumagraj.’

First year Polytechnic students organized the event with great fervor and performed various activities enthusiastically. After a brief introduction of Kusumagraja’s life, a musical extravaganza was presented in the morning.

Students read some famous poems of the great litterateur and also explained their significance for the flourishing of Marathi language. Some of the videos depicting less known facts about Marathi were also shown to the students.

Sunetra Phatak, Academic coordinator of Bhonsale Knowledge City, Gajanan Bhosale, Principal and all the HOD’s were present for the program. Sachin Sawant, FYCE welcomed all the dignitaries. Yukta Sawant, FYCE delivered the introductory speech and Abhishek Pawar, FYME proposed vote of thanks.
