

YBP launches its newsletter The Reflection

(The inaugural issue of Reflection was released at Bhonsale Polytechnic in a cheerful atmosphere)

Sawantwadi: The inaugural issue of Yashwantrao Bhonsale Polytechnic's newsletter The Reflection has been successfully launched yesterday in a very cheerful ceremony. Sanjeev Karpe, Managing Director of Native Konbac Bamboo Pvt.Ltd, Kudal and Achyut Sawantbhonsale unveiled the maiden issue of The Reflection.

In his encouraging remark Sanjeev Karpe said, "The efforts to bring out a quality newsletter are really noteworthy. Bhonsale Polytechnic has made a remarkable progress over the period and its environment friendly campus makes it more distinct too." While underlining the importance of releasing newsletter Achyut Sawantbhonsale said, "Literally Reflection means the mirroring image of the subject. So it would become very helpful to engrave all the merits of YBP on reader's mind. It would be a snapshot of the various activities and advancements associated with YBP. It would also provide a platform for exposing the academic & co curricular achievements of the students & faculty"

Sunetra Phatak, Administrative coordinator. Gajanan Bhosale, Principal, YBP, Dr.Vijay Jagtap, Principal, Yashwantrao Bhonsale College of Pharmacy and Tushar Rukari, Principal, Yashwantrao Bhonsale College of D.Pharmacy were also present during the launching ceremony. Earlier Amar Prabhu, lecturer, YBP welcomed all the dignitaries. The program was concluded by offering vote of thanks.
