

Make a common purpose to learn, educate and collaborate: Vandana Karambelkar

Guest lecture on women safety at Bhonsale Polytechnic

(Vandana Karambelkar addressing to the girls of Bhonsale Polytechnic on women's safety)

Sawantwadi: “Women safety is a big social issue which needs to be solved urgently by the effort of all. It is inhibiting the growth and development of the girls and in that way of the society. Make the use of Women's Grievance Cell for a common purpose to learn, educate and collaborate on ideas that have the power to effect meaningful and positive change while fighting the adversities you face”, said Vandana Karambelkar, a renowned social worker who is working for women welfare since last ten years. She was speaking at Yashwantrao Bhonsale Polytechnic.

A guest lecture was organized on women's safety by the Women's Grievance Committee of Bhonsale

Polytechnic. Vandana Karambelkar was speaking as a guest speaker in the program. Adv.Asmita Sawantbhonsale, Chairperson of Shri Yashwantrao Bhonsale Education Society, Archana Joshi, Principal of Yashwantrao Bhonsale International School and Sunetra Phatak, Coordinator of Bhonsale Knowledge City was present on the dais.

The senior social worker interacted with the girls on various issues and advised them how to respond in cases of sexual harassment, ignorance by the family etc. Earlier in the program Sarita Sawant, head of women's grievance committee delivered the introductory speech and later proposed vote of thanks.